About Beaumaris & Anglesey

The Bulkeley Hotel is located in the historic seaside town of Beaumaris, with views over the Menai Strait to Snowdonia. Beaumaris Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage site, lies a short walk from the hotel. Cobbled streets, colourful cottages, and the waterfront offer abundant painting inspiration.

Nearby painting attractions include:

- Menai Strait: Changing tides and distant mountain views create dramatic scenes.
- Penmon Point: A short drive away, with lighthouse views across to Puffin Island.
- Llanddwyn Island: A tidal island on the south-west coast, famous for wild beaches and ruined chapels.
- South Stack Lighthouse, Holy Island: Stunning coastal cliffs and seascapes.
- Snowdonia National Park: Just across the Menai Bridge, offering sweeping mountain landscapes.
