Sketch, Draw, Paint! Exploring creative stages in drawing and painting landscapes

During this course we will aim to develop an approach to creating your artwork. Beginning with careful observation of a subject through a sketch, onto the importance of the drawing stage, finally progressing from these drawings into making your paintings. Individual advice will be given on creating a strong composition through observational skills and developing good drawing techniques. From your drawings, we will progress into making paintings using acrylic, watercolour and mixed media. We will all meet up first at the Village Hall and travel out a short distance from there together to make sketches and gather information. These sketches will form the basis for the creation of your drawings and paintings. The sketching location will be Grinshill Quarry, Corbet Woods. If you cannot sketch outdoors, you have the alternative option to bring a sketch or image of your choice with you to work from on the day.

Tutor: Bob Spendlove (12th, 19th and 26th November)

10am to 4pm, Upton Magna Village Hall, Shrewsbury

COST: £45 payable in advance

An Introduction to Composition

During this course we will look at ideas to help you to improve your compositions and therefore your paintings. You will be introduced to many ways of doing this with demos, handouts and PowerPoint presentations. The first week we will be looking at improving landscape compositions. Please bring your medium or mediums of choice, A4 sketch books and six landscape images to work with.

Priority will be given to applicants that can attend all 3 classes, but if space allows, there may be a possibility to attend 1 or 2 sessions only.

We will allocate the 16 places on these courses in the order of receipt of Booking Forms.

Participants will receive further information prior to the start of the course.

- There are 16 places available on each course of three sessions
- There will be a waiting list once the 16 places have been filled
- If applicable, we will ask you if you wish to be placed on the waiting list
