Painting demonstrations online via 'Zoom'

As we have been unable to organise our usual in-person painting demonstrations recently, because of the current situation, Rob Leckey is researching the possibility of offering such events to you via Zoom (an online platform for live events that many of you may now be familiar with... it works for video calls, webinars etc.).

We would like to know how many members would be interested in joining us for painting demonstrations delivered in this way. The 'ticket price' will depend on the number of members likely to participate, but we want to keep it below the usual £10.

To begin, Mark Warner gave a demonstration to the Society in August 2019, and is available to demo again to us now. Mark is a Shropshire-based artist, accomplished in giving his demonstrations via Zoom.

If you would be interested in joining us, please tick the options below, complete and return the form below to Rob as soon as possible, by Friday 16th October.
